Dear Mr. Rapier:

This is the Department of the Treasury's (Treasury) final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated December 14, 2018. You requested the "records pertaining to claims of sexual harassment by Treasury employees and resulting investigations by the department from January 1, 2013 to December 14, 2018." Your request has been processed under the provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552. The enclosed responsive document is deemed fully releasable and no exemptions have been claimed. There are no fees assessed at this time since allowable charges fell below the threshold for search and duplication.

If you would like to discuss this response you may contact me, the FOIA Public Liaison, for assistance via email at FOIAPL@treasury.gov, or via phone at (202) 622-8098.

A FOIA Public Liaison is a supervisory official to whom FOIA requesters can raise questions or concerns about the agency's FOIA process. FOIA Public Liaisons can explain agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, provide an estimated date of completion, and discuss how to reformulate and/or reduce the scope of requests in order to minimize fees and expedite processing time.

If you are unable to resolve your FOIA dispute through our FOIA Public Liaison, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) also mediates disputes between FOIA requesters and federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. If you wish to contact OGIS, you may contact the agency directly at the following address, emails, fax or telephone numbers:
